

Spring Lunch Time Seminar Series

Education in the Developing World: A Closer Look at Africa

Hosted by the Centre for Global Development through Education (CGDE)
Mary Immaculate College, Limerick

OPEN TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

Venue: Mary Immaculate College. Room G08: Time: 1.10pm.

Thurs 4th February : ‘In Search of an African Perspective - the Concept of ‘Tribe’ in Ireland and Europe’ by Dr. Cathy Swift, Department of History, Mary Immaculate College.

Thurs. 11th February: ‘Irish Aid and Africa - a Focus on Education’ by Austin Gormley & Paula Nolan, Irish Aid, Department of Foreign Affairs, Limerick.

Thurs 18th February: ‘Changing Lives through Computer Technology in South African Township Schools’ by Danny Gallagher, Protea Education Development Project (NGO).

Thurs 25th February: ‘Bóthar – from Goats to Goals: A brief look at the relationship between small- to medium-sized Irish NGOs and Development Education’
by Jeremy Meehan, Director of Education, Bóthar

Thurs 4th March: ‘Fairtrade: and Education in the Developing World’ by Sr. Delia O’Connor and Shane O’Sullivan, Limerick Fairtrade City Steering Group.

Thurs 11th March: ‘Working in Non-Formal Education: How Christian Aid Helps Youth and Adults Educate Themselves for Life, with a Focus on Sierra Leone’ by Alix Tiernan, Monitoring and Evaluation Officer, Christian Aid Ireland.

Thurs 18th March : ‘Are the Gods Crazy?: Teaching, Learning and Reflective Practice among the Turkana Nomads of Kenya’ by Dr. Thomas Grenham, Mary Immaculate College.

Thurs 25th March: ‘Education to Employability: Non Formal Education in Kenya’ By Bryan Patten, Partner Support Team Manager, Suas Educational Development.

All are Welcome